Schedule of Events

31st Annual CAMP SCRIPPS
June 27 – 30, 2024

CAMP SCRIPPS

Come to Camp Scripps for the retreat of your dreams!

Four days of relaxation, connection, fun, and frolic.

Camp is exclusively for Scripps alumnae. Space is limited. Reservations are made on a first-come, first-served basis.

NOTE: The best laid plans may need to be modified.

WHO:

Engaging alumnae of every Scripps decade from the '50s to the present.

WHAT:

Workshops and activities led by Scripps alumnae Campers to stimulate the mind, body, and soul. Good food, great conversation, and lots of laughter.

It is always a delight to return to the Scripps campus. The beautiful and peaceful setting is a great antidote to the stress of everyday life.

WHEN:

Thursday lunch through Sunday brunch, June 27–30, 2024. Sign up online for one to four days. See page 8 for registration details.

WHERE:

A “room of your own” in Browning or Dorsey residence hall. Double rooms are available for two Campers to share.

HOW:

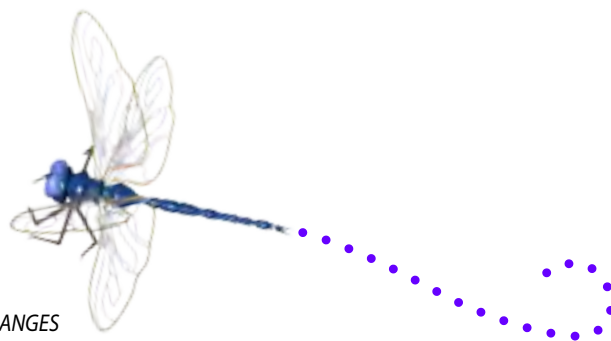

The motto of Camp Scripps is “Everything possible, nothing required.” You can attend workshops or let serendipity be your guide: reconnect with old friends, make new friends, or just enjoy the beauty of the campus. This year’s workshop offerings can be found on pages 5-6.

CAMP SCRIPPS

IN THIS AGE OF COVID UNCERTAINTY, OUR MOTTO MORPHS TO:

EVERYTHING POSSIBLE,
ALTHOUGH IT MIGHT NOT BE ANYTHING LIKE THE ORIGINAL PLAN
NOTHING REQUIRED

OTHER THAN A SENSE OF HUMOR, PATIENCE, AND AN ABILITY TO ADAPT TO CHANGES

Visit the Camp Scripps website for the latest event updates at scrippscollege.edu/alumnae/campscripps.

PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES

- Pre-Breakfast Coffee and Snacks
- Open Studio
- Memorial and Honoring Space
- Found Poetry
- Dragonfly Exchange
- Book and Plant-Cuttings Share
- Camp Scripps Raffle to Fund Camperships

The fabulous Scripps pool is always a big draw, especially when it is summertime warm.

INCIPIT VITA NOVA—AGAIN!

Be inspired and rejuvenated by participating in new activities or indulging in old favorites.

Check out pages 5 and 6 for the list of this year's planned activities.

“Camping” at Camp Scripps is NOT under the stars, in sleeping bags on the ground, next to a fire...but it isn't the Ritz either. We stay in the residence halls, not a hotel...and the only guaranteed room provisions are the furniture we might remember as Freshmen, lights, air conditioning, and hot water. The conference-provided linens are serviceable, not plush. Plan on bringing your personal daily beauty potions and paraphernalia (hair dryer, soap, etc.).

MAKE IT EASY ON YOURSELF

Apart from a very few optional activities, everything is prepaid, so there's no need to carry a purse.

The price includes your room, all meals, workshops, and standard-issue linens. Would you like luxurious bedding and towels? Bring them along.

Camp is all about what YOU want to do. Park it poolside with a book, take a walk into the Village, take a nap, or all of the above.

It's up to you.

Camp fun begins with check-in. Seasoned Campers cheerfully help first-timers get settled.

COVID-19 protocols change rapidly and may result in modification of event content and locations as needed for the health and safety of all Camp attendees and staff. Adaptability and understanding will be greatly appreciated.

QUESTIONS?

Call the Office of Alumnae Engagement at 909.621.8054 or e-mail alumnae@scrippscollege.edu or visit scrippscollege.edu/alumnae/campscripps. You'll receive an email letting you know when detailed information is available online.

CAMP SCRIPPS 2024 CAMPERSHIP FUND RAFFLE ITEMS

Created to benefit Campers who may need some help coming up with the registration fee and traveling to Camp, the Campership Fund and Tamara Smiley Hamilton travel stipends are supported entirely from direct donations and revenue from raffle ticket sales. Raffle tickets can be ordered in advance with registration and will be available throughout Camp.

The raffle drawings will be held at dinner on Thursday and Friday nights and during Saturday's Grand Finale. At the Camp check-in area in the Dorsey Hall foyer there will be four boxes; one for each night and a general raffle box. You may drop your tickets in a specific night box to be eligible for that evening's drawing or you may put them in the general raffle box to have a chance to win every night.

Through the generosity of sister Campers, the following items have been donated for this year's Campership Fund Raffle.

THURSDAY NIGHT:

2 GIFT BAGS will be raffled off, each featuring: "Everything Possible, Nothing Required" Camper Essential

Tote Bag with a green leather journal, scented candle and elegant bud vase for your room.

FRIDAY NIGHT:

2 GIFT BAGS will be raffled off, each featuring: "Everything Possible, Nothing Required" Camper Essential Tote Bag with 2

bottles of bubbly to kick up the night and dance under the stars. Alcoholic and Non-Alcoholic options are available.

SATURDAY NIGHT:

1 DRAGONFLY WALLHANGING (28"x28") by Gailen Jacobs Runge '91. This stunning wall quilt was first raffled off in 2018 and has been re-donated by Kymberli Coulbourne '90. Called "Add a Little 'Everything Possible' to Your Everyday Life," the appliqué quilt comes with a hanging sleeve at the top.

2 A vibrant BEADED BRACELET holds a piece of Camp Scripps' dragonfly spirit. Deborah Muldower '91 generously shared her work of art. Deborah can often be spotted at Camp beading her amazing pieces.

3 DRAGONFLY BACKPACK filled with two very special books by Scripps College alumnae — one from the Class of 1931 and one from the Class of 2022. Deborah Muldower '91 generously donated the Dragonfly backpack. The Wang Doodle, Folk Tales from the Carolinas is by Jean Cothran '31, the first Scripps alumna published author, and Ants, a Novel is by Nikita Chinamanthur, '22, the most recent alumna published author.

4 Becky Judd '73 has donated a 6X6 CERAMIC TILE with a dragonfly motif made by a local (Cape Elizabeth, Maine) ceramicist, Jon White. It can be hung on the wall or used as a table decoration.

5 Becky Judd '73 also offers a set of 8 NOTE CARDS (with envelopes) featuring pictures of flowers from various locations in Maine.

6 Ceramic dish created by Lucille Housel Burke '70. Lucille has been creating with clay (and many other media) for over 50 years. She donates her artwork to the raffle and her glazed pieces are always highly coveted.

7 Cupcakes and Cashmere: "The Margot" EARRINGS AND BOOK, Cupcakes and Cashmere At Home by Emily Schuman '05, the Founder & CEO of Cupcakes and Cashmere. She is passionate about food and fashion. You can check out her great style for beauty, fashion, food, decor, shopping, and DIY projects on her website www.cupcake-sandcashmere.com

8 Photo Collage by Merrilee Stewart Howard '70. This beautiful photo collage was originally raffled off in 2021. It is being re-donated by Jacque Heston '09. Merilee is a creative photographer and an avid explorer of the Scripps College campus. She shares her beautiful photographs of the campus on her social media. This collage is a collection of striking images featuring Scripps' Mañana Court.

9 Kristin Douty '93 donated this beautiful KIMONO AND PRE-TIED OBI she acquired from Japan. The kimono features dragonflies on a brilliant blue background.

10 FOUR FRAMED QUILTED STITCH ART DRAGONFLY CARDS by bead and fiber artist Joanne McFarland from St. George Island, Florida. Dragonflies are prolific on St. George Island, a barrier Island off the coast of Florida, because of the intense climate and perfect location for trade winds.

SNAPSHOTS FROM CAMP SCRIPPS 2023

Bring something to personalize your door so friends (old and new) can find you at Camp.

Browning Hall and Dorsey Hall will be our home for the four days of Camp Scripps 2024. Single and double rooms to share will be available. Room selection and procedure will be detailed with registration.

Campers find the peace and beauty of the campus as appealing as the opportunity to learn something new and/or have some silly fun.

Standard-issue linens are the only "camping" part of Camp Scripps.

CAMP IS A UNIQUE EXPERIENCE — COME JOIN IN THE FUN

A dragonfly encounter at Seal Pond, while not guaranteed, is an experience worth pursuing.

You won't find silk fan dancing listed in the curriculum for the school year, but it was at Camp! What fun to learn a new skill and then get to share it at the Grand Finale!

The Creative Caucus strives to present a variety of workshops that might renew a long ago interest—or introduce you to something new.

Beading! An often requested and favorite Camp workshop.

AN ABUNDANCE OF WORKSHOPS AND ACTIVITIES FOR ALL

Camp art materials in the Dorsey Hall rec room are available at any time for a Camper's inspiration.

Take a writing workshop with Bella Mahaya Carter '83. Through her guidance, prompts, and patience, Campers are encouraged to explore, reveal, and celebrate a talent for storytelling.

Art workshops are not only "hands-on" they are "hand-held" as well. "Stone" carving makes a bit of a mess, but in the end, there is a sculpture to be proudly displayed at the Art Exhibit and then to take home.

EVERYTHING POSSIBLE — NOTHING REQUIRED

Considering the dragonfly is the Camp totem, workshops that feature a dragonfly image are very popular. Wearing a dragonfly-inspired shirt any other time of the year is a fun reminder of Camp.

Pick a workshop to try a new skill. A patient workshop leader will be there to guide you all the way.

Some workshop activities are just plain goofy.

Camp is not only a silly joy, a place to reconnect, or an opportunity to learn something new, it is also a four-day respite from ordinary life.

4 DAYS FILLED WITH THE MAGIC OF DISCOVERY AND LAUGHTER

Ahhhhh. The pool! As popular as ever in the heat of the day even though the residence halls are now fully air conditioned. Sun or shade, the pool is a great place to hang out.

The seed and plant exchange is another way to bring a little bit of Camp home.

Did you know that Seal Pond also has resident turtles?

The Friday night theme dinner, fun whether you dress up or not, can reveal some truly amazing outfits. Rock on, ladies!

AN ALUMNAE TRADITION SINCE 1994—AND STILL GOING STRONG

Workshop leaders share their knowledge and interests whether it is their passion or livelihood.

Tea break in the afternoon. An opportunity to share or compare workshop experiences, catch up on plans for the next time period, or just rehydrate, mellow out, and eat cookies.

The Grand Finale presents a variety of entertainment capturing the spirit and diversity of what Camp has to offer.

The Camp Ditty performance is always a winner.
